Welcome to Mass, and a special welcome to anyone visiting the parish today. For those of you going on holiday – have a good, dry – and even sunny – time!

Today is the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. The apostles Peter, James and John were privileged with the sight of the glory of Christ on Mount Tabor. 'Lord it is wonderful to be here' splutters Peter as he is overcome by awe. Let us pray that in the celebration of the sacred mysteries of the Holy Mass we may have eyes of faith to see beyond the outward signs of the bread and wine, and, through grace, to pierce the mystery of God in Christ made truly present before our eyes.

This week there is also 'the move', and so from Thursday Fr John will be the parochial administrator until the arrival of the new Parish Priest in September. Please remember in your prayers Fr John Peyton and Fr Toby Duckworth as they prepare for their priestly ministry amongst us, and for Fr Philip and Fr John as they prepare for their new appointments.

We also need to pray for vocations to the priesthood at this time. For the last ten years there seems to have been a noticeable decline in the number of those offering themselves for the priesthood. This is now showing itself in the dearth of ordinations in the diocese, and so will be felt in those available to serve in our parishes. Do encourage the possibility of vocations in your own families and friends – and maybe in yourself!

Window - the Parish Magazine - is on sale from the Piety stall in both churches. Get your copy for £1. There are lots of interesting articles and photographs.

We pray for those who have died recently: John McGloughlin, Robert Taylor, Margaret Keane, Hugh McCarren, John Enright (Requiem Mass at St Dunstan's on Friday 18th August at 11am), and Michael Fahey (Requiem Mass at St Dunstan's on Wednesday 6th September at 11am).

The Next Baptism Preparation Meeting is on Thursday 7th September in the Conference room of St Dunstan's. If you wish to attend, please contact the Parish office, and leave your name and phone number, and bring along evidence of baptism in the Catholic Church for at least one parent.

St Dunstan's church will be open: Monday to Thursday from 8am to 4pm, and on Friday church will open at 8am and will close following the evening Mass as there is Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Fridays between the two Masses.

Lectio Divina in the Conference Room after morning Mass every Monday. You are invited to read and reflect on the Gospel of the day and think about God's word.

Living and Praying the Divine Will in the Conference Room on Wednesday at 12.30pm.

August Edition of Responding to the Call of Creation: Information on climate action and ways you can get involved, go to www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk/responding-to-thecall-of-creation-newsletter.

Date for Your Diary: On the 9th and 10th September the National Pilgrim Virgin Statue (NPVS) of Our Lady of Fatima and the Relics of Saints Jacinta and Francisco Marto is coming to St Dunstan's once again.

Men's Rosary in the City Centre on Saturday August 19th at 11.45am. A men's Catholic organisation are meeting at the bull by the Bullring Shopping Centre to pray for Birmingham. They are appealing to men in the City to witness to the power of the rosary and the intercession of Our Lady. Please consider joining them and invite other men to stand alongside you in this unique prayer event. It is estimated it will finish at 12.30pm (See poster on notice board for more details).

London UK March for Life on Saturday 2nd September. Day return coach trip. Centenary Celebration for English Martyrs, Sparkhill. A good number of parishioners have long connections with English Martyrs. You are invited to a Centenary Mass at 6pm on the 8th September followed by refreshments in the Gilsenan Hall. The celebrant will be one of the former parish priests of English Martyrs, Archbishop Kevin McDonald. For an idea of numbers for the buffet it would be a great help to the parish if you emailed p.hamilton@englishmartyrs.bham.sch.uk in good time.

The Parish operates in accordance with Statutory Safeguarding Guidance and the National and Archdioceses policies & procedures at all times. Our Parish Safeguarding Representatives are Annette McGrath and Regina Darcy. They can be contacted at: sg.stdunstan.bham@rcaob.org.uk or alternatively the Diocesan Safeguarding team can be contacted on 0121 230 6240/ safeguarding@rcaob.org.uk if you have any concerns.

O God, who in the glorious Transfiguration of your Only Begotten Son confirmed the mysteries of faith by the witness of the Fathers and wonderfully prefigured our full adoption to sonship, grant, we pray, to your servants, that, listening to the voice of your beloved Son, we may merit to become coheirs with him.

A reading from the book of Daniel (7:9-10,13-14).

As I watched: Thrones were set in place and one of great age took his seat. His robe was white as snow. the hair of his head as pure as wool. His throne was a blaze of flames, its wheels were a burning fire. A stream of fire poured out, issuing from his presence. A thousand waited on him, ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. A court was held and the books were opened. I gazed into the visions of the night. And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven, one like a son of man. He came to the one of great age and was led into his presence. On him was conferred sovereignty, glory and kingship, and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants. His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away, nor will his empire ever be destroyed.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Psalm 96)

R: The Lord is king, most high above all the earth.

The Lord is king, let earth rejoice, let all the coastlands be glad. Cloud and darkness are his raiment; his throne, justice and right. R:

The mountains melt like wax before the Lord of all the earth. The skies proclaim his justice; all peoples see his glory. R:

For you indeed are the Lord most high above all the earth, exalted far above all spirits. R:

A reading from Peter (1:16-19)

It was not any cleverly invented myths that we were repeating when we brought you the knowledge of the power and the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; we had seen his majesty for ourselves. He was honoured and glorified by God the Father, when the Sublime Glory itself spoke to him and said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour.' We heard this ourselves, spoken from heaven, when we were with him on the holy mountain. So we have confirmation of what was said in prophecies; and you will be right to depend on prophecy and take it as a lamp for lighting a way through the dark until the dawn comes and the morning star rises in your minds.

Alleluia, alleluia! This is my Son, the Beloved: he enjoys my favour. Listen to him. Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew (17:1-9)

Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain where they could be alone. There in their presence he was transfigured: his face shone like the sun and his clothes became as white as the light. Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them; they were talking with him. Then Peter spoke to Jesus. 'Lord,' he said 'it is wonderful for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' He was still speaking when suddenly a bright cloud covered them with shadow, and from the cloud there came a voice which said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour. Listen to him.' When they heard this the disciples fell on their faces, overcome with fear. But Jesus came up and touched them. 'Stand up,' he said 'do not be afraid.' And when they raised their eyes they saw no one but only Jesus. As they came down from the mountain Jesus gave them this order, 'Tell no one about the vision until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.'

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Sanctify, O Lord, we pray, these offerings here made to celebrate the glorious Transfiguration of your Only Begotten Son, and by his radiant splendour cleanse us from the stains of sin.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

May the heavenly nourishment we have received, O Lord, we pray, transform us into the likeness of your Son, whose radiant splendour you willed to make manifest in his glorious Transfiguration.
