Welcome to Mass, and a special welcome to anyone visiting the parish today. We are grateful to Fr John O'Brien for helping us whilst Fr John is on pilgrimage.

We welcome into the family of our Parishes Natasha Dawson, Brooke and Brogan O'Sullivan who were baptised at St Dunstan's last weekend.

Presentation to Father Philip, our Parish Priest of 10 years. The second collection today will be a collection for Fr Philip in recognition of the service he gave to the Parish. The presentation to Fr Philip will be made on Sunday 22nd October following the 6.30pm Mass in the Social Centre to which all parishioners are warmly invited. To assist us with catering, free tickets will be available this weekend.

St Jude's Church: The work to the north-light window is in progress. During this time, for health and safety reasons, no access is allowed inside church during the week. Therefore, Tuesday morning Mass will take place in St Jude's school hall. Sunday Mass will not be affected, Mass will be in church as usual.

Meeting for Eucharistic Ministers and readers, and anybody who would like to become a Eucharistic Minister or reader: On Wednesday 25th October immediately after the 7pm Mass in the Conference Room. This involves all involved in these ministries in both Parishes. We will also have a retreat day on Saturday 18th November beginning with the 11am Mass until 4.30pm at St Dunstan's.

Baptisms: Parents who wish to have their children Baptised should leave their name and telephone number at the Parish office and Fr John will get in touch.

Journey of Faith will begin on Tuesday 7th November at 9.00am in St Jude's School. If you would like to learn more about the Catholic faith, please come and join us.

We pray for those who have died recently: Margaret Mooney, John Parsons, Mary Donaghy, Celia Cummins (Requiem Mass at St Dunstan's on Tuesday 24th October at 12 noon), Richard Rudge (Requiem Mass at St Dunstan's at 10.45am on Friday 27th October) and Anne Marie Flynn (Requiem Mass at St Dunstan's on Tuesday 31st October at 11am).

Children at Non-Catholic Schools wishing to receive the sacrament of Confirmation: Classes will start after half term. Please contact Parish catechist, Nuala Bielby, for more information on 07586 370 918 or 689 2917.

The November Blessing of the Graves – we will gather again for this annual focus on and prayer for the faithful departed at 2pm at the following cemeteries:

- Sunday 5th November – Brandwood End & Quinton
- Sunday 12th November – Widney Manor & Lodge Hill
- Sunday 19th November – Kings Norton & Robin Hood
- Sunday 26th November – Wythall & St Nicolas.

Grave lights are now on sale at the Piety Stall at St Dunstan's.

Lectio Divina in the Conference Room after morning Mass every Monday. You are invited to read and reflect on the Gospel of the day and think about God's word.

Is anybody asking questions about the Catholic faith? The Sycamore Course has begun in the Conference Room on Tuesdays at 7.45pm. We are currently small in number but there is tea, coffee and biscuits available to entice. All are welcome.

Living and Praying the Divine Will in the Conference Room on Wednesday at 12.30pm.

Little Lambs: A chance for a coffee and chat with other parents, grandparents and carers whilst the children play. Come and join us in the Conference Room from 10.15am to 12.15pm on Friday.

The Statue of Our Lady of Fatima is available for home visitation throughout the year: As you spend time with Our Lady, your prayers are united with all families praying for our Parish. If you would like the statue in your home for a week, please contact the Parish office and the Legion of Mary will arrange this.

Are you currently in Year 12? Are you a people person? Do you want to help build a Christian society? Open to any student who is motivated by their faith and their studies, with bursaries available as needed. More information and applications via our new website www.christianleadershipformation.com, and follow on Instagram (@christianleadershipformation) for all the latest updates!

COLLECT

May your grace, O Lord, we pray, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah (25:6-10)

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us; for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Psalm 22)

R: In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit. R:

He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. R:

You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. R:

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
for ever and ever. R:

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Philippians (4:12-14, 19-20).

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word was made flesh and lived among us:
to all who did accept him
he gave power to become children of God.

Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew (22:1-14).

Jesus began to speak to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests. When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him, "How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?" And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Accept, O Lord, the prayers of your faithful with the sacrificial offerings, that, through these acts of devotedness, we may pass over to the glory of heaven.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We entreat your majesty most humbly, O Lord, that, as you feed us with the nourishment which comes from the most holy Body and Blood of your Son, so you may make us sharers of his divine nature.
